

Clinical Staff Biography: Andrea Wieselmann

Andrea Wieselmann, M.S., CCC-SLP, Speech-Language Pathologist, re-joined the clinical staff at the Center for Hearing & Speech in 2008. She has 24 years of experience as a speech-language pathologist, with 22 of the 24 years spent at the Center. Ms. Wieselmann's work currently focuses on providing therapy for children in preschool and elementary school. She earned her master's degree from Fontbonne University and holds a certificate of clinical competence in speech/language pathology. Ms. Wieselmann has taught sign language and has served as an augmentative communication specialist.